

Making memories that last a lifetime

PORT BROUGHTON, THE ULTIMATE FAMILY HOLIDAY DESTINATION

Port Broughton Jetty

1 TOPTOURISM TOWN

Looking for the perfect family holiday destination where you'll feel your stress slip away? Look no further than Port Broughton, a picturesque seaside town at the top of South Australia's Yorke Peninsula, just a short two-hour drive from Adelaide. With its stunning coastal beauty, endless activities and attractions, and rich history, Port Broughton is the ultimate place for families with Primary School aged children and a dog to plan a holiday that will create memories to last a lifetime.

As you enter Port Broughton, the breathtaking views of the sea and friendly waves from the town locals greet you, setting the tone for the perfect family getaway. The town centre offers everything a family needs to create a home away from home. From public playgrounds to serene waters that offer endless water activities, Port Broughton caters to families of all ages.

Port Broughton Playground

Port Broughton Tourist Park

Unlock the Treasures of Port Broughton

Prepare for an unforgettable adventure and cast your line or net off the illustrious Port Broughton Jetty. With its prime location and abundant marine life, you'll have a blast reeling in catch Blue Swimmer Crab, King George Whiting, Tommy Ruffs, Yellowfin Whiting, Squid, Salmon, Flathead and Mullet for a sensational seafood feast. But if fishing isn't your thing, fret not, as there's plenty more to explore in the enchanting town.

The Port Broughton Tourist Park is a family's dream come true, with a plethora of activities that cater to all ages. Take on the challenge of the mini-golf course, slip and slide down the waterslides, cool off in the splash park or the solar-heated swimming pool, and even rent go-karts for some high-speed fun. If you love to ride bikes, scooters, or skateboards, the pump track is the perfect place to test your skills. And for kids with boundless energy, the Funky Monkey Ninja Playground is a must-visit, with endless obstacles to conquer.

Bute Silo Art

Port Broughton Foreshore

Delight in Local Flavours

When hunger strikes, Port Broughton's diverse dining scene is sure to satisfy your cravings. Savour the taste of the sea with fresh, succulent seafood from Barnes Seafood, or grab some quick bites to go from the beloved Beachfront Takeaway or Central Deli. For a picturesque alfresco dining experience, head to Palate 2 Palette and indulge in their mouth-watering offerings. If you're in the mood for pizza, you can't go wrong with the delectable wood over pizzas from SeaRenity. And who can resist the famous schnitzel nights at the Port Broughton Hotel? With its idyllic front beer garden and welcoming dog-friendly policy, it's the perfect sport to savour a cold beer and soak up the most breathtaking sunsets in all of South Australia.

A World of Timeless Wonders

Port Broughton is not just about the activities; it's also about the stunning scenery and rich history that make it a unique and special place that has been loved by generations of South Australians. For those who want to immerse themselves in the town's rich history, the local Heritage Centre and Museum is a must-visit. Here, visitors can learn about the town's maritime past and its significant role in South Australia's development. The museum features an impressive collection of artefacts, photographs, and exhibits that provide a glimpse into the town's past. From fishing to farming, the Heritage Centre has something for everyone.

For art enthusiasts, Gallery 1871 is a haven for creative expression. The gallery features a diverse range of exhibitions highlighting various themes, materials, and media. Visitors can browse through an extensive collection of paintings, sculptures, and installations from both established and emerging artists.

And for those looking to explore the region's artistic side, the Yorke Peninsula Art Trail is a must-see. Featuring colourful murals, statues, mosaic creations, and photo opportunities that are scattered throughout the region. Visitors can experience the awe-inspiring Bute Silo Art, which won the 2022 Australian Street Art for Best Rural Art, located in Bute, just a short 20-minute drive from Port Broughton.

Gatherings Galore

Experience endless joy and adventure with your loved ones at Port Broughton, where family-friendly events abound all year round. From the delectable Feast on the Foreshore to the vibrant Seaside Markets, and the enthralling Classic & Vintage Show N Shine, there's always something to do and see, and let's not forget the thrilling Rubber Duck Race that will have your heart racing with excitement! Time simply flies when you're in this delightful seaside town, creating cherished memories that will remain etched in your hearts forever.

Port Broughton Seaside Markets

Port Broughton is truly the ultimate family holiday destination that offers something for everyone. Whether you want to explore its rich history, relax on the beach, or get adventurous with outdoor sports, this vibrant town is the perfect place to enjoy a family getaway.

So, what are you waiting for? Pack your bags and head over to Port Broughton for an experience you'll never forget!