Tourism Law: TiCSA Members

Wallmans Lawyers are proud to be the exclusive legal service provider to TiCSA and its members.

Wallmans Lawyers have a key specialisation in the tourism industry with a team of over 10 legal advisors assisting accommodation providers, food and wine operators, tourism attraction businesses and tourism tour/transport providers, with all facets of business operations and management.

As a full service commercial law firm, our integrated team of lawyers can provide a 'one stop shop' assisting you with commercial and business law, acquisitions and sales, property and leasing, hospitality and licensing, employment and industrial relations, and disputes.

Our knowledge of the sector means our advice is solution focussed, relevant and practical. We can guide clients through the full range of regulatory, administrative and operational frameworks affecting your tourism business. Whether you are the operator of one, or a number of facilities, owner operated or run under management agreement, or whether based locally or regionally, we are uniquely placed to assist you.

Free Telephone Advice Line: 8235 3018

Wallmans Lawyers is pleased to offer all TiCSA Members a free 15 minute phone call to discuss any legal issue.

If you need further assistance and choose to formally engage us after your call, we can determine the scope of the work with you and provide a fee estimate where possible.
